

 Camas Public LIBRARY	Policy Title RULES OF CONDUCT	Policy Number 2.3
---	---	-------------------------------------

I. Behaviors

- a. Library users are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is safe and non-disruptive to the shared use of the Library.
- b. Behaviors, which affect the safety or comfortable usage of the Library, may result in the loss of library access and/or library services. These include, but are not limited to:
 1. Any activity in violation of federal, state or local law, or Library policy.
 2. Interfering with library operations or other library users, including disruptive noises and unsafe behaviors.
 3. Blocking any access, including library aisles or passageways.
 4. Bringing animals, other than service animals, except as authorized by the Library.
 5. Weapons are prohibited in the Library unless permitted by law.

People whose actions violate these expectations will be asked to stop. Police may be summoned. The Library reserves the right to require anyone violating these expectations to leave the Library. The Library may withdraw permission for a person to re-enter its facilities if the person continues violating these rules (RCW 27.12.290)
